Dear Hugo,

Everyone at the Trust would like to thank you for once again sponsoring and hosting the shoot day at E. J. Churchill, and for helping us raise such a fantastic amount of money. Overall, the day has made £38,610.00, which is an amazing income. As usual the auction was a great success, and we would also like to thank you for leading the auction so successfully. Despite the weather everyone clearly enjoyed the event, and we were able to introduce the Trust to several new people; something which is always a great bonus for us.

2014 was a very special year for the Trust, where we celebrated our first decade of supporting families of seriously-ill and life limited children, from diagnosis, through treatment and beyond. It was a very busy year in which we opened our new outreach hub, re-opened our popular bookshop 'Bas Books', held our second parliamentary reception, were named recipients of the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services – the MBE for Charities, and were invited to a reception at 10 Downing Street hosted by Samantha Cameron. We have also expanded in numbers, allowing us to increase the number of families that we support and the services we can offer them.

As we enter our second decade, we hope that we will continue to thrive and continue to be there for our existing families, as well as be able to reach out to more in their time of need – to provide a well needed respite break at The Bluebells, a wellbeing treatment to ease aching bodies, offer advice on where to receive much needed financial aid, or just a friendly voice at the end of the line saying 'we're here'.

Your continued support over the years has enabled our charity to grow into what it has become today, and events such as the shoot day are vital to help us maintain the level of service we are currently providing. Without any government funding, it is only through supporters such as yourselves that we continue to support families of seriously-ill children.

We hope that you will continue to monitor and support our journey going forward, to help us be here for families of seriously ill children. Always.

Yours Faithfully
